

The only thing better than our chairs...

A World Away. The Golden Inn whispers to you the quiet peacefulness of a secluded, year-round oceanfront resort. Snuggled on the white sandy dunes on the barrier island of Avalon & Stone Harbor, New Jersey, our hotel is centrally located between New York City, Washington D.C. and Philadelphia. We are a full-service beachfront resort that offers newly constructed professional conference facilities and services to groups from 5 to 200 attendees in a variety of settings.

...is our view!
